

Joint Communications Unit Memorial

The Special Operations Communicators Association (SOCA) is proud to announce a major initiative with the construction of the Joint Communications Unit Memorial. The Memorial will serve to honor those active duty service members and civilians that have been lost during their tour of duty. The memorial serves as a quiet, peaceful garden to visit and reflect on those that we lost, our mission and the sacrifices given by all. For those that visit, we hope that this memorial gives a sense of purpose to those brothers and sisters that have served this great nation both past and present and for all that will serve in the future. As part of a fundraising effort, we are offering individual paver foundation stones for purchase. Get your name set in stone today. Stones serve as a show of support to the JCU and are not limited to JCU members.

Note-1: If your name is longer than 22 characters, a few more characters can be added at a reduced font size.
 Note-2: SOCA reserves the right to refuse/deny stone placement for individuals or content.
 Note-3: First three lines are standard, lines 4-5 can be used, but not mandatory
 Note-4: Since donors to the Joint Communication Unit Memorial receive no tangible goods or services in return for their contribution, the Internal Revenue Code allows the entire amount of the donation to be deducted as a charitable contribution. Donors should consult their personal tax advisor for the effect of this on their personal tax situation.

In order for every penny to go towards the memorial, please pay cash or check at the unit or mail to the below address.
